Monday 10th January to Wednesday 12th January

Wednesday 12th January to Friday 14th January.

WHERE

- Fairplay House, a former 1930's country manor house which was the former home of Lord Braintree. Located in Wickham Bishop Essex, is set in 15 acres of picturesque grounds comprising areas of natural woodland and fruit orchards.
- It has been converted into an exciting residential facility, providing excellent accommodation with comfortable dormitories and spacious rooms for work and relaxation. The dormitories on the first and second floor can accommodate up to 60 pupils and there is both single, twin and triple rooms for visiting staff.
- The grounds, with their purpose built outdoor education facilities provide many opportunities for outdoor learning, adventure and fun!
- Fairplay House Outdoor Education Centre is one of the longest running outdoor education centres in the UK with nearly 50 years of experience in inspiring and offering outdoor learning to young people and adults.
