

Friday 9th September 2022

Dear Parent/Carer,

We would like to invite you to attend our year group meetings taking place this term.

They are an opportunity for you to meet the staff working with your child this year, find out what the pupils will be learning as well as any other key information relevant to the year group.

For Year 6, this will include information about secondary school admission, the FairPlay house residential and the end of Key Stage 2 assessments (Year 6 SATs).

Please note, pupils will also be in attendance so the meetings will start and finish promptly. You must ensure you arrive in time for the start of the meeting as any late arrivals will not be permitted.
